1st Corinthians Chapter 6:1-11 PRE-WORK

Below are the scenarios we will use to guide discussion in Chapter 6, verses 1-8. Please read the scenarios and be ready to discuss how you would resolve these conflicts. Specific scenarios have been assigned based on your attendance for Tuesday. Please come ready to discuss.

Scenario#1: Handling a Conflict Among Believers in the Church

For "Faith Lounge" Only:

Two ministry volunteers, Anna and Marcus, serve together on the Worship Team. For several weeks, tension has been growing because Marcus feels Anna has been undermining his leadership by changing song arrangements without consulting him. Anna feels Marcus is controlling and dismissive of her contributions.

After a Sunday service, the disagreement escalates into a heated argument in front of other team members. Both are visibly upset, and the conflict begins to affect the team's unity and the atmosphere of worship rehearsals.

The Worship Pastor decides it must be addressed biblically and with integrity.

Scenario#2: Handling a Conflict Among Believers in the Church

For In-House Only:

Janelle, a church member, registered for a weekend women's retreat and paid the full $175 fee. Two weeks before the retreat, her job unexpectedly required her to work mandatory overtime, forcing her to cancel.

She emails the event coordinator, Sister Karen, requesting a refund.

Karen replies kindly but explains that the church has already submitted final payments for lodging and meals, and refunds are not available after a certain date. Janelle becomes upset, feeling the policy wasn't clearly communicated. She expresses her frustration to several women in her small group, and the tension begins to affect relationships.

The Women's Ministry Director recognizes the need to handle this conflict biblically and restore unity.
